Raising the Bar of Excellence

While many professions perform deeds of great service to humanity, few are esteemed as serving the people in the hallowed courts of justice. Undertaking the UK Degree Transfer Law Programme arms a graduate with more than just the knowledge necessary to become a successful legal practitioner. The programme cultivates an analytical mindset that allows graduates to draw critical conclusions in an impartial and effective manner while enabling graduates to persuasively critically reason and argue ideas in the written word and in eloquent discourse alike.

The knowledge and skills imparted are not only useful in legal practice but in other endeavours as well, acting as a strong foundation and a springboard for graduates to pursue careers in other fields beyond practising law. Graduates from INTI have found great success in other fields including the business arena, the arts, journalism, education and even the public sector as well.

LECTURERS WITH PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE AND ACCREDITATION

Over 50% of the academic staff at the faculty have professional industry experience in a variety of roles in the legal profession as well as professional accreditation as legal practitioners. This enables students to gain firsthand insight and understanding from a professional perspective to equip them for a career in law.

SMALL CLASS SIZES AND BLACKBOARD LEARNING SYSTEM

Class sizes at INTI are deliberately kept small with 20 students maximum per class in order to ensure an optimum teaching experience. This is further augmented by INTI's innovative Blackboard learning system that enables students to interact with fellow students and lecturers via online forums, review course content via recorded videos and notes as well as collaborate and interact on class projects online.

INTI Law students are consistently rated as among the best performers with the University of West England noting that INTI students outperformed their own in the 2016 final examinations. In the same year, four INTI students have earned prestigious 1st class Honours across multiple universities adding to the grand total of over 15% of students throughout its history that have obtained such an honour. INTI has also produced more than 63% Second Upper Honours graduates from the UK's top universities.

Innovative Learning

THE FUTURE OF LEARNING IS HERE

As a trailblazer in education for over three decades, INTI has been at the forefront of education innovation by offering an academic curriculum that is not only industry relevant but is also immensely effective.

INTI integrates an array of proven approaches to teaching combined with revolutionary applications of technology in the classroom such as the innovative Blackboard Learning Management System. Combined with a world class curriculum that incorporates industry-relevant courses in tandem with real-world scenarios and projects. INTI graduates are highly employable and empowered to make a positive difference from day one.

EFFECTIVE ONLINE LEARNING FOR A NEW AGE

The cornerstone of INTI's world-class learning methodology is the Blackboard Learning Management System that is integrated into many programmes taught at INTI. With Blackboard, learning does not only happen in the classroom, it happens everywhere.

Blackboard isn't just about reading course notes. It's a holistic, integrated system to collaborate and interact with fellow students and lecturers. Students can offer and gain feedback from their peers on coursework and perform self-assessments while learning in a safe, nurturing and holistic environment that encourages creativity, critical thinking, and collaboration.

Classes become active forums to interact and grow as students share knowledge and collaborate with their peers. This personalised, interactive approach to learning results in well-rounded, highly motivated individuals who gain critical thinking skills and the motivation to give them an extra edge in the global workforce.

MEASURABLE ASSESSMENTS

Students enrolled at INTI gain a bird's eye view and are able to develop a road map for their academic progress through INTI's revolutionary Blackboard system which allows course supervisors to monitor every aspect of a student's performance from their attendance to the quality of their coursework and much more.

Course supervisors are also able to actively monitor, advise and pinpoint areas for improvement and offer consistent feedback to ensure students can address the weaknesses in their academic performance. This directly impacts student success and ensures better student outcomes.

INDUSTRY-RELEVANT PROGRAMMES

Today's work environment is more fast paced than ever before, demanding a host of 21st century skills that young professionals must demonstrate in order to excel and succeed. Recognising the importance of addressing the needs of both students and the industry, INTI has remained at the forefront in ensuring the employability and job-readiness of its graduates. Each and every course taught at INTI integrates industry-relevant curriculum that is constantly evaluated for relevance.

As part of that goal, INTI lecturers undergo Faculty Industry Attachment (FIA) programmes where they are seconded to top industry partners for several months. Lecturers go through an orientation and on-boarding process including real-world scenarios in order to gain an in-depth understanding of what a new graduate hire will experience and what are the current demands of the job market.

INTI has established Industry Advisory Boards (IAB) that call upon active and influential professionals as well as recognised leaders in each industry ranging from Business, Engineering, Hospitality, Art and Design, and Information Technology to advise the academic boards on curriculum design and course delivery. This ensures that students will acquire the knowledge and soft skills that can be immediately applied from the first day of work.

ALICIA CHIN

UK Degree Transfer Programme, Law
Currently pursuing Certificate in Legal Practice (CLP)

Energetic Alicia Chin juggled being a full-time student and a national athlete. She cherishes the relationships she's forged along the way, and overcame rock-bottom by viewing every rise from failure as accomplishments. Her determination allowed her to receive both a Sports Scholarship and the Vice Chancellor's Scholarship.

“ I chose INTI for a few reasons. I had previously completed my A-Levels at INTI International College Subang, and liked it there. I met a few lecturers from the Law programme who were great people, and that convinced me to further my studies at INTI International University. It helped that I was on a full scholarship for my entire degree. INTI International University also provides a great Law programme that is affiliated with many respectable universities in England. I also chose INTI for its amenities, mainly its swimming pool, and sports facilities. INTI International University has always been supportive of me, and my pursuit of extra-curricular activities like sports. They allowed me to have a flexible timetable and exam schedule.

Since high school, I've always dreamed of being a lawyer. It was only a matter of where to complete my studies, and INTI International University was my choice. If asked, it'd be a choice I'd gladly repeat, but like all students, there were times where I struggled. I was in the Malaysian Water Polo team during my second year, and was selected to participate in the 2017 SEA Games.

I cannot name just one person who inspired me, for there are many who have left huge impacts on my professional life. The lecturers in INTI taught me to love law and its beauty. The two main traits that students should have in order to succeed in the working world is a good attitude and basic skills. Having a good attitude and personality are keys to being successful because employers love individuals who are driven, willing to learn, adapt fast, and have great social skills. No matter what job you may end up in, a teachable employer is one that ascends the ladder the quickest. It's also important to learn basic skills like time management, being economically responsible, and multi-tasking to avoid being a new graduate with no personal responsibility, as they are the hardest to employ.”

SEEN QIN YIN

from Cardiff University

“ As a pure science student, taking a law degree was a big and scary leap for me. Hence, I am eternally thankful to have chosen INTI as my platform as the lecturers in INTI took the initiative to ensure that everyone in class could cope with the syllabus without even the slightest hitch. Although reading the law might sound like a long and tough task, I was more than happy to find out that with relatively small and focused classes here in INTI, the lecturers were able to pay attention to all the students and to plan classes according to our pace. Furthermore, with passionate lecturers and various events planned by them, learning became enjoyable and something we all look forward to. If anyone were to ask me to recommend an institution to read the law, it would, without doubt, be INTI. INTI Law Faculty is not only a department, it is a home to us law graduates, whom would all stand by the fact that it is the best.”

JESSALYN CHEONG YI WEN

from University of West England

“ My experience reading law at INTI International University (INTI) has been a fruitful and rewarding one. The team of lecturers that I was fortunate enough to be taught by is dedicated in fulfilling their duties in bringing out the outmost potential in their students. The lecturers have never shunned from answering any queries that students have. Besides, they are always there to provide moral and emotional support to students which I believe helped me immensely during the 2 years that I was there. They were the ones who steer me through tough times, providing the support that I need, that has instilled much confidence in me to move forward with no qualms. I fervently believe that this has further helped me in coping with the pressure and workloads that I faced when I was in the UK. As a current Bar Professional Training Course (BPTC) student in the UK, I realised that a law student requires practical skills to complement the theoretical knowledge that is acquired in classrooms. INTI provides the platform for students to hone their practical skills as moot competitions and debate competitions are held by the law school. I was a participant of the internal moot competition in INTI which I believe, has improved my presentation skills significantly. Not only that, the support system in INTI for law students doing the transfer programme is commendable. We were given all the help and information needed in our application to UCAS and also to partner universities by INTI which greatly reduces the stress and worries of applying to UK universities.”

RACHEL HEAH

Graduated with First Class Honours from
University of Liverpool

“ At INTI, I had excellent lecturers who not only taught law, but also nurtured, advised and challenged me to do the best that I could. In addition, there were many opportunities to develop leadership skills, network, and meet friends from various parts of the world. All in all, I feel that INTI played a very significant role in shaping my identity and my career path.”

JEHANE ACKBURALLY

Graduated with First Class Honours from
University of Liverpool

“ The lecturers at INTI helped to sharpen my abilities to excel in law. I was pleasantly surprised at the standard of teaching and their tirelessness at making sure that the students do their best. I could not, not even for a day, forget what I was working for because my lecturers would not let me lose focus. INTI, with its remarkable law school, team of dedicated lecturers and the bustling student community, is a platform which gave me a voice, a vocation and an identity.”

A MIND IS A TERRIBLE THING TO LOSE

HEALTHY MIND. HEALTHY BODY. WE'RE HERE TO HELP OUR STUDENTS ACHIEVE BOTH.

It's a fact, that college is not a walk in the park. The transition from high school to college is a significant change in one's lifestyle and being away from friends and family in a new and unfamiliar environment can be daunting. For many students, this transition, while exciting, can be tough to cope with.

According to the Ministry of Health, Malaysia, in 2016 alone, one in five Malaysian students suffered from mental health problems. What's worse, a prolonged state of mental health issues can result in permanent consequences, including schizophrenia, depression, insomnia and ultimately suicidal thoughts. According to the World Health Organization, suicide was the second leading cause of death among individuals aged between 15-29 years old, with a suicide attempt occurring every three seconds.

AS A STUDENT AT INTI, YOU'RE NEVER ALONE. WE'RE HERE FOR YOU.

To help you adapt to the demands of college life, INTI has developed the MESA PROGRAMME. Developed by INTI's team of experienced student counsellors through research in established student counselling methodologies, MESA serves as a bedrock for students throughout their journey at INTI, helping students to excel Mentally, Emotionally, Socially and Academically (MESA).

Providing a support group and source for counselling and guidance, MESA helps new and current students to cope with the demands of academic life and provides various platforms for them to develop into well-adjusted, successful individuals in life. Here's how various aspects of the INTI MESA Programme contribute to the mental health and happiness of our students:

M - MENTAL(LY)

Adjusting to the rigours of college life can be a daunting task. This is on top of potential family, health and relationship problems which may be more than what a student can bear. INTI's professionally trained team of student counsellors are able to lend a friendly ear and a helping hand through free, professional student counselling in a confident and discreet manner. Students are also exposed to workshops that highlight pressing mental health issues such as recognising and addressing the risks of suicide, identifying depression, ways of combating stress and more.

E - EMOTIONAL(LY)

Mental health is but one component to achieving a well-balanced and healthy lifestyle. Emotionally healthy people are able to cope with the challenges that life throws at them and have the ability to establish and maintain healthy social ties with those around them. To avoid feelings of isolation or alienation, INTI assigns a senior student mentor to new students who guide and help them to adjust to academic life. Students can also participate in group counselling sessions to understand the dynamics and nuances of managing relationships and learn to cope with life's challenges.

S - SOCIAL(LY)

INTI offers robust social programs across all its campuses that engage students in a positive and meaningful way. At INTI there are a rich array of clubs, social networks and activities - many of which are proactively initiated by fellow students - that promote social interaction, aid in improving soft skills and encourage students to contribute to their communities.

A - ACADEMICAL(LY)

The demanding pace of higher education requires students to rapidly master a host of technical skills and new ways of learning to succeed. With the integration of the Blackboard Learning Management system into INTI's first year experience programs, students gain a bird's eye view of their progress and can easily identify areas for improvement with the help of their lecturers and academic staff. These are also supplemented with regular workshops that help acclimatise students to the rapid pace of learning and usage of the Blackboard system.

MEET SOME OF INTI'S COUNSELLING TEAM. WE'RE HERE FOR YOU.

All INTI campuses have accredited and professionally trained counsellors who are available for consultation and counselling services.

With a Master of Counselling from the University of Malaya and a degree in Science and Education (Guidance and Counselling) from University Technology Malaysia, Siow Yen has extensive experience in dealing with students enduring relationship issues, depression, addiction and more.
